

Contract Manufacturing Service

Creating flavoursome speciality foods

Our team combines catering and hospitality skills with experienced food professionals to create flavoursome speciality foods.

Through our Contract Manufacturing Service we work in partnership with our customers to convert their food ideas into commercially viable products and services.

Businesses using this service include specialist food companies, franchises, distributors and caterers.

Burgers, bites & patties

Birubi Foods specialises in creating pre-cooked fresh or frozen burgers, bites and patties.

We can produce patties in a range of styles, flavours and sizes—providing ready-to-cook and serve catering or meal ingredients.

We have a long history making vegie burgers and, proven experience in making patties with a wide range of ingredients.

Our vegie burger products are available through butchers, delis, specialty retail outlets and many local IGA, Foodworks, Ritchies and Thomas Dux supermarkets.

Our burgers or customised burgers, bites and patties are used by many speciality burger and franchise restaurants and food outlets.

Foodservice partner

Birubi Foods has extensive experience in creating, manufacturing and distributing affordable, ready to use, five star quality foods. As well as our vegie burgers we routinely supply gourmet fillos, pasta meals, pies, pate and frittatas

With our skills and capability we provide a back-of-house service for fast food outlets, restaurants, cafes, pubs and caterers.

By using our service, customers are able to improve their product offering; improve their service efficiency; get better value and return from their venue space; and employ staff focused on customer service rather than food preparation.

We can supply our products (as is or customised), or work with customers to provide products to meet their specific requirements.

Speciality Gourmet Foods

By using our contract manufacturing service our customers focus on understanding their customers and building their brands and sales.

Our facilities and skills allow us to supply a range of baked, grilled and pre-prepared fresh, frozen and shelf stable ready-to-use ingredients, pre-mixes, sauces and meals.

Products available through our contract manufacturing service include customisations of our routine products as well as speciality sauces, curries, casseroles, pre-cooked premixes, salad pre-mixes, and dried meals made to specific customer recipes.

We also assist customers to prepare specifications, ingredient lists and nutritional information.

We operate a delivery round in the Melbourne metropolitan area and where required assist customers to establish distribution to their locations throughout Australia.
